Weatherford Names New Director

BAAR, Switzerland, March 12, 2018 – Effective today, Weatherford International plc (NYSE: WFT) has appointed Angela A. Minas to serve as a member of the Board of Directors.

Ms. Minas has more than 30 years of financial, management consulting and executive leadership experience in the energy sector having served as the Chief Financial Officer of DCP Midstream Partners LP and Constellation Energy Partners LLC as well as lead partner for Arthur Andersen's North American oil and gas consulting practice. She has also served on the boards of multiple public companies including as audit committee chair. She currently serves on the Council of Overseers at the Rice University Graduate Business School. As a member of the Weatherford Board of Directors, she will serve on the Audit Committee and Health, Safety and Environment Committee.

"Angela's extensive experience in the energy industry, as well as her deep knowledge of finance and accounting, consulting and business transformation, makes her a strong addition to the Weatherford Board," said Mark A. McCollum, President and Chief Executive Officer. "Her passion, integrity and insight will be especially valuable as we press forward with our Company's transformation."
